

Matthew McCulloch

Composer, recording engineer, transcriber/copyist

Able to teach violin, music theory, composition

3520 E 36th St. Tulsa, OK 74135 • 918-284-0249 • chupperson@gmail.com

<http://www.matthewmcculloch.com>

Education:

Bachelor of Music in Composition

Magna cum Laude

University of Tulsa 2009

Experience:

22 years playing violin

4 years part-time performance with TCC Signature Symphony

Studied composition under Dr. Joseph Rivers, Dr. David Moore, and Dr. Roger Price

Took classes in Digital Recording

Studied Film Scoring with Dr. Joseph Rivers

Extensive experience recording and editing recitals and concerts by soloists, band, orchestra, choir, Oklahoma Composers Association, etc.

Recording and production of rock ensemble

Experience transcribing/editing sheet music for orchestra/jazz ensemble

Composition of music for various independent video game projects

Skills:

Able to play many instruments including violin, piano/keyboards, guitar, bass, drums, etc.

Able to teach violin, music theory, composition, etc.

Extensive experience with Finale music notation software

Composition of acoustic and electronic music for various ensembles, video games, film scoring, etc.

Proficient in use of DAWs such as Pro Tools, Ableton Live

Familiar with use of mixing boards/consols

Familiar with wide variety of audio hardware & equipment, able to configure and operate mixers, amps, etc.

Good working knowledge of sound balancing, microphone placement

Other skills:

Familiar with Microsoft Office and similar tools

Familiar with computer hardware and electronics

8 years retail customer service experience

References available upon request